The Dignity of Singleness & Marriage: Faith, Hope, & Love

We are in-love with the idea of love and yet we are deeply cynical of love. We are enthralled by life-giving love and yet deathly fearful of love. Is the ultimate experience really the committed love that both Hollywood and Church are selling? Does the secular promise of "happily ever after" and the spiritual vow of "till death do us part" relegate singles to waiting-for-life-to-begin? Or do singles and marrieds possess an equal dignity in God's eyes?

God tells us of the glory of love in the Bible...

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres...And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

- 1 Corinthians 13:4-7,13

Join us to be encouraged and challenged to see how the faith, hope, and love of singles and married alike unite us in our search for God.
